Event: Me to We Conference – Vancouver 2011

Summary of Activity:

Select students of School District #83 were required to submit applications to attend said conference expressing why they were interested and invested in global, social and environmental sustainability and support. As a selected applicant, I was able to attend this conference on a 2-day educational trip of which I was surrounded by like-minded peers, networked and was educated by world leaders and role models on topics regarding human rights, environmental impact and how we can influence change.

Dates/Duration of Activity: 2 Days (2011)
